

When racing, greyhounds wear different colored jackets that are numbered so that they can be easily identified. These jackets are called 'silks' because they are made from silk fabric. Silk is very soft and feels good to wear.

Color the silks for Coconut Creme to wear while racing.

The #7 silk is striped!

How many silks are there?

